Title 37. Code of Federal Regulations, Section 1.56 Dury to Disclose Mormstion Material to Parentability

- (a) A patent by its very nature is affected with a public interest. The public interest is best served, and the most effective patent examination occurs when, at the time an application is being examined, the Office is aware of and evaluates the teachings of all information material in patentability. Back individual associated with the filling and prosecution of a patent application has a duty or candor and good faith in dealing with the Office, which includes a duty to disclose to the Office all information has a duty or candor and good faith in dealing with the Office, which includes a duty to disclose to the Office all information known to that individual to be material to patentability as defined in this section. The duty to disclosure information exists with respect to each pending claim until the aleim is cancelled at withdrawn from consideration need not be abandoned. Information material to the patentability of a claim that is cancelled or withdrawn from consideration meet not be submitted if the information in not material to the patentability of any claim remaining under consideration in the application. There is no duty to submit information which is not material to the patentability of any existing of alm. The duty to disclosure all information known to be material to patentability of any claim known to be material to patentability is decaded to be satisfied if all information known to be material to patentability of any claim issued in a patent was cited by the Office or submitted to the Office in the manner prescribed by 9 g 1.97(b)-(d) and 1.98. However, he disclosure was violated through bad faith or intentional misconduct. The Office encourages applicants to carefully examine:
 - (1) Prior art cited in search reports of a foreign patent office in a counterpart application, and
- (2) The electrication over which individuals associated with the filling or prosecution of a parent application believe any pending claim patchedly defines, to make our that any material information contained therein is discinsed to the Office.
- (b) Under this section, information is material to patentability when it is not cantilative to information already of record or being made or record in the application, and
- (1) it established, by fuelfor in combination with other information, a primatecic ome af imparatability of a claim; of
 - (2) It refutes, or is inconstant with, a position the applicant takes in:
 - (i) Opposing an atgument of unparentability relied on by the Office, or
 - (ii) Asserting an argument of patentability.

A prime facia case of unpatentability is established when the information compets a conclusion that a claim is unpatentable under the proposideness of evidence, burden-of-proof analysis, giving each term in the claim is broadest reasonable construction consistent with the specification, and before any consideration is given to evidence which may be submitted in an attempt to establish a contrary conclusion of patentability.

- (c) Individuals associated with the filling or prosecution of a patent application within the meaning of this section are:
 - (1) Each inventor numed in the applications;
 - (2) Buch attorney or agent who prepares or prosecutes the application; and
- (3) Every other person who is substantively involved in the preparation or provecution of the application and who is associated with the inventor, with the assignos or with anyone to whom there is an obligation to assign the application.
- (d) Individuals other than the attorney, agent or inventor may comply with this seation by disclosing information to the attorney, agent, or inventor.
- (e) In any continuation-in-part application, the duty under this section includes the duty to disclose to the Office all information known to the person to be nownial to patentability, as defined in paragraph (b) of this section, which become available between the filing date of the order application and the national or PCT international filing date of the continuation-in-part application.
